HAT FIRMS ATTACHED FOR OVER $300,000

Danbury, June 18 .- Suits have been brought in this city by the Associated Hat Manufacturers, incorporated, of New York, against fourteen hat manubrought in this city by the Associated Hat Manufacturers, incorporated, of New York, against fourteen hat manufacturing firms in Danbuy, Bethel, and New Milford for damages of $25,000 a from each for alleged violation of the terms of agreements, and the bonds that figured in the recent tie-up of the hatting industry in Danbury and throughout the country.

Attachments aggregating more than $300,000 are being placed upon the real estate and bank accounts of the firms $300,000 are being placed upon the real estate and bank accounts of the firms and corporations which are made defendants in the suits. The sixteen concerns sued made a settlement with the Hatters' Union last week, and the suits are the outcome of that settlement. The seven Danbury concerns which effected a settlement during the present week are not being sued, and their names appear in the list of those who figure as plaintiffs.

the opportunity. This is the last day to get the unbleached muslin that has who figure as plaintiffs.

New York, June 18.—Milton Dammann, President of the National Asmann, President of the National Association of Hat Manufacturers, states that the action taken against the Danbury. Bethel, and New Milford firms is for a forfeiture of the bonds which all the manufacturers in the association had signed following the strike of the employes in January. It was then agreed among the manufacturers, he stated, that the union label should not be employed by any of them under great demand for Arts and Crafts a great demand for Arts and Crafts jewelry. G. W. Fairchild & Sons, have taken their entire line of this work and have cut the price just in haif. These are all strictly handmade and are from the ship of the Carence Crafters in Chicago. Their only reason for this cut in price is that they need the room for other goods. When in need of silverware remember that this firm are the wholesale and retail representatives of Holmes & Edwards for this vicinity and can supply any grade of silver-plated flat-ware at the lowest prices. be employed by any of them under penalty of forfeiture of the bonds. Any member of the association had the right to withdraw from the organiza-tion upon giving ninety days' notice, but such time limit had not expired when the Connecticut manufacturers when the Connecticut manufacturers, he asserted, had made an agreement with their employes for the settlement of the strike and the use of the label.

Happenings of Interest About The City.

Special Officer A. J. Mrazik fell out of his launch yesterday morning, became entangled in the rope to which he was about to attach the boat's tender, and had a narrow escape from drowning. He was rescued by J. F. McLarney, who jumped from Yellow Mill bridge, and swam to the rescue. A fishing trip which Mrazik had contemplated with Police Sergeant John H. Regan, had to be postponed. Upon the suggestion of Judge Howard J. Curtis, yesterday, the suit of Eben Hill against Alvah B. Tuthill and wife, a dispute over riparian boundary lines, was settled by agreement.
